bodily risk. (cash: 391. M.S.R.). The risk contemplated is such a one as is in-separable from the Service and could be foreseen. In the present case, Hemagiri Jatra took place from the 11th to the 17th February 1913. Ramanna was appointed on Special duty during the period. While on this duty he attended to the burial of one wayfarer who died of cholera; it is reported that he caught infection in consequence and died. The point for consideration is whether entraordinary bodily risk was inseparable from the Special duty. Though at the time the Dappedar was deputed, cholera might not have broken out in the place yet if it breaks out during the period of deputation, and it was part of his duty to attend to it, it should be held that the Special duty was attended with extraordinary bodily risk. The family is thus eligible to get an extraordinary pension of Rs 7. p. M in the name of the eldest son of the deceased till the Son is 18 years' old, as reported on by the Tahsildar.

Letter No.118 dated 26th August 1913 from the Superintendent of Polic French Rocks Circle to the Inspector General of Police in Mysore

In forwarding herewith a file of records connected with the death of one Duffader Ramanna of Kekkeri Sub-Station from Cholera while on duty in Hemagiri ~~Chatra~~ Jatra of the Krishnarajapet Taluk, I have the honor to state that the deceased caught the infection under the circumstances mentioned below:-

During the last Hemagiri (Krishnarajapet Taluk) Jatra which lasted from 11th to 17th February 1913, a certain wayfarer died of Cholera on the 15th February at Hemagiri. As there were no claimants to the deceased, whose identity was also left in complete obscurity, the task of attending to the funerals etc of the deceased devolved on the Police, and the deceased 2nd class Duffedar Ramanna No.195 of the Kekker Station (Krishnarajapet Taluk) who was there on special duty at the time, supervised the burial, though people, assembled there, dispersed precipitately in all directions, being panic striken. The next two days passed off smoothly and on the 17th evening the said Ramanna returned to Kikkere having had two or three vomittings and purging on the way. The whole of that night, vomitting and purging continued and next morning i.e., 18th, his condition became serious. Medical assistance was requisitioned to no effect. He expired on the same morning. The circumstances under which the late Ramanna died, leave no room to doubt that he died of cholera having caught the infection, while, attending in the course of his duty to the funerals etc. of the wayfarer who died of cholera at Hemagiri. The medical certificate and the Mahazar, submitted herewith in pursance of your instructions contained in my predecessor's diary for the week ending 22-2-1913 go to confirm the above fact. A Deceased Ramanna who, at the time of death was about 45 years of age, had put in nearly 25 years of uninterrupted and approved service in the Police Department only, and it is doubtless, he would have with his good antecedents and capacity risen higher in service. He leaves behind him an old mother, a young widow and five young children in utter poverty.

I request, therefore, that you may be so good as to move Government to grant the family of the deceased a reasonable extra-ordinary pension.

A petition received from the mother of the deceased is submitted herewith along with the statements required under Articles 403 and 404 of the Mysore Service Regulation.

Sir

With reference to the Amildars yadi No. nil Dt/18/2/1913

I beg to report that I was informed by the Amildar on the 18th inst. that a Police Daffadar by name Ramanna was attacked with Cholera at Kikkeri & that he is in a very bad state of health & I proceeded at once to the spot & found on examination, sunken eyes with extreme pulse & tratism. I gave him the the necessary medicine & advice. Half an hour after he expired. I have taken all precautionary measures to prevent the spread of the epidemic at Kekkeni. This Daffadar was to send on special duty to Hemagiri where it appears he used to work hard even without food & rest during Jaffna, There was a suspicious Case of death by Cholera. This Daffadar remained by the side of this Corpse & attended its burning & returned to Kekkeni for duty on that ~~evening~~ very night (on the 17th inst) Early morning of the 18th idem at 3 O'clock he had violent vomiting & purging like a fine. & became extremely weak & prostrate

It appears he was treated by a native physician at Kekkeni. I was reported by the Shanbogue while attending upon this Daffadar that a few persons who returned from Hemagiri Jaffna to Hodakalli were attacked with Cholera & succumbed to it. This Hodakalli is on the way to Kekkeni from Kuichmanaipet. So on my way back to Kuichmanaipet, I visited this village also & gave medical advice to the villagers. The villagers relieve their disturbing

Thanks & Regards,

Ramkumar
